1. VOB files contain no identifiable traces on the following persons mentioned in references:

Istvan STOLTE

Anton STER

Istvan HAJDU

Farkas SCHUTTER

2. VOB files contain numerous traces on one Lajos HAJDU-SZENT, born 15 May 1907 in Fegyvernek, Hungary, married, four children, leading member of "Elet" and representative of the Social-Democratic Party. In 1951 he was Secretary General of KIM (Hungarian, espionage). Lajos HAJDU-SZENT is reportedly connected with the Hungarian National Council. VOB files indicate that POC already has information on Lajos HAJDU-SZENT. In November 1951, POC staff employee Emeric BARSZCZ was in Vienna and apparently discussed Subject with VOB staff members. If Lajos HAJDU-SZENT is identical with the subject of your request, and POC does not have information on him, VOB will be glad to forward more detailed traces.

3. VOB files contain the following traces on one Zoltan HAKRA:

a. NAVA 6226, dated 2 August 1950, subject: "SIPUS, Gen", mentions one Zoltan HAKRA who claims to have clandestine channel into and from Hungary. HAKRA may be another front for the ZAKO group charged with the task of making publicity for the alleged intelligence network.
